

WESTERLY

Tuesday, about 6:45 a. m. a woman was discovered lying beside the highway between Stonington and Westerly. She was taken to the medical examiner, Dr. W. H. Gray, who was called by the medical examiner. Dr. Gray, who was called by the medical examiner, found the woman dead and notified the coroner. The woman was taken to the coroner's office and the coroner, Dr. Gray, who was called by the medical examiner, found the woman dead and notified the coroner. The woman was taken to the coroner's office and the coroner, Dr. Gray, who was called by the medical examiner, found the woman dead and notified the coroner.

Contrast of the two streets and the highway between Stonington and Westerly do not seem to be in the same class. The highway is a good one, but the street is a poor one. The highway is a good one, but the street is a poor one. The highway is a good one, but the street is a poor one. The highway is a good one, but the street is a poor one.

Chief of Police Thomas E. Brown who has always had the interest of the public at heart and who is always ready and willing to carry out his duty as far as it is in his power, intends to enforce the dry law in town. He stated that at present there are no places here where intoxicating liquor is sold, but notwithstanding the fact that a license is being kept, three weeks prior to the enactment of the prohibition bill the Westerly police in conjunction with the federal authorities compiled a list of nine places where it was believed that intoxicating liquor was being sold. Four of these places were raided and in one instance an arrest was made. The alleged violator is now awaiting grand jury action.

The nine places it is said were the only ones suspected of maintaining liquor licenses. These places have since then been kept track of and closed up or no longer engaged in what is thought was illegal liquor traffic. The two will go dry to comply with the provisions of the Sherwood enforcement act.

Monday afternoon superior court opened with Judge George T. Brown presiding. The case of Jesse C. Ferguson vs. Samuel H. Davis, executor of the will of the late William Clarke, an appeal from the probate court of Westerly, was called on for argument. The case was argued by Mr. Ferguson and Mr. Davis. The court rendered its decision in favor of Mr. Ferguson. The case was argued by Mr. Ferguson and Mr. Davis. The court rendered its decision in favor of Mr. Ferguson.

The death of Mrs. Margaret F. Hayes, widow of Joseph Hayes, occurred at her home on the Potter Hill road Sunday afternoon at a short illness. Mrs. Hayes had resided here for a long time. The funeral was held Tuesday at 2 o'clock.

Monday following the collection of clothing during the building drive for the Red Cross relief after an appeal by the chairman, Mr. Rogers Traubner, nine packing boxes were gotten ready for the headquarters in Providence to which the boxes will be shipped at the end of the week.

J. H. Simenon of the borough, is started out. The Atwood lot property on Elm street has been divided into building lots and it is understood that a road will be cut through at this point from Elm street connecting with Cutter street. This would mean less traffic around the curve at Cutter and Elm streets.

The boat owners had the good spring weather and have put overboard their launches and sailboats. All along the shores of Stonington and Parsonage street boats have been taken from winter quarters to their moorings. No less than 50 boats have been launched, between Stonington, Westport and Parsonage street river.

A large number attended the exhibit of relics at the Shaw Mansion, New London, under the direction of the County Historical Society. A fine list of specimens from the old whaling days are on exhibition. Mrs. Fuller, who was formerly located at the light house here, where Captain Fuller had charge for so many years, has a fine collection on exhibition there.

Beauty Hint for Women

For clear skin and bright eyes

Take

Beecham's Pills

10c-12 pills
25c-40 pills
60c-90 pills

When food is only imperfectly digested, it gives rise to fermentation, clogs the bowels, and renders the blood impure. This results in dull eyes, muddy skin, blotches, pimples and other disfiguring marks. Beecham's Pills act immediately on the stomach, liver and bowels; regulate them and keep them in a vigorous condition. They are mild, harmless and dependable. They are compounded of remedies of vegetable origin having great medicinal value.

Feed Your Nerves

Don't whip them—

Here is a delicious Vitamin drink; it restores vitality, aids digestion and tones up the system—not a drug, but a pure food, pure vegetable, yet of richest meat flavor.

Begin today. Drink a cup of Vegex—the delicious vitamin food that is richer in Vitamin B than any other foodstuff. For one week drink it as a broth or as you drink coffee. At the end of one week—(probably within three days) you will feel the results in greater vigor, energy, freedom from nervousness. If you have been listless and tired you will find you now awake with a joyous feeling of renewed youth and strength. Men and women are finding themselves again—are proving and testifying to the wonderful results which Vegex is producing for them.

Make This Test For One Week

If at the end of the week you are not entirely satisfied—take back your partly empty jar. Your dealer will refund your money at once.

Why You Need It

Recent dietetic science has revealed startling facts. It has been proven there are millions of people only half alive, only half enjoying themselves, living continually in a state of ill health, simply because they are starving for vitamins, soluble proteins, mineral salts and phosphates.

Lack of these essentials in food is largely responsible for listlessness, lack of energy, tired feeling, mental fatigue, indigestion, constipation, gas on the stomach and general debility. Vitamin B has been found necessary even to the building and preservation of sound teeth and bones. Recent experiments have shown these essentials have a direct bearing on practically every phase of life.

Yet in many of our modern foods the life giving essentials have been destroyed. Cold storage, overcooking, canning, contact with metal, and preserving destroys part of the Vitamin B.

But Vegex will add the Vitamin B, the phosphates, soluble proteins, and mineral salts to your diet.

Made from Yeast

Vegex is a tasty delicious food. All the life giving essentials, all the vitamins of 12 pounds or more of the richest yeast are concentrated into one pound of this truly life giving food. It is richer in Vitamin B than any other food.

When you taste Vegex you will want more because it is so delicious. None of the yeast taste remains. It never ferments or becomes stale. The vitamins in Vegex will remain potent indefinitely.

Used by British Government

Vegex comes from England. During the war the British Government used millions of pounds to keep the armies healthy. Every ounce was needed for underfed Britishers so that the export of Vegex was prohibited by the British Government until long after the war. Now the ban is lifted. Americans are getting Vegex. In Washington, D. C. it is now served at the U. S. Senate Restaurant and the U. S. Supreme Court Cafe. The world famous Lister Institute of London and the Bellevue Hospital of New York City both feed Vegex to patients in order to hasten their recovery and to give them strength. It is only a few weeks since Americans were first told of Vegex and the sale was pushed. The response has been instantaneous. Already Vegex is being sold at an enormous rate.

Vegex is the richest of all foods in Vitamin B. Its vitamin potency keeps indefinitely.

Beware of untested vitamin preparations. Ask for the certificate of vitamin potency from a recognized laboratory. The Vitamin Food Company's products are certified by the nationally famous pure food laboratories, the Westfield Testing and Research Laboratories of Professor Lewis B. Allen. Vegex is endorsed by Good Housekeeping Institute.

50 New Dishes

Vegex may be served in 50 ways. As a bouillon, in sandwiches with or without butter, as a drink, as a sauce, or gravy. These are only a few of the delightful new dishes chefs have made from Vegex. With each jar comes a book of recipes. Most people buy Vegex because it is a delicious food. All of us need Vegex because it is richer in Vitamin B than any other food.

Call on Your Dealer

Try Vegex today. Your grocer and your druggist both sell it in 30c, 50c and $1.00 jars. You risk nothing. If, after you have used Vegex for a week you are not entirely satisfied return the partly emptied jar to the merchant from whom you bought it and your money will be refunded immediately. For your health's sake—try Vegex today.
